NYSTA's 2017 Western Regional Conference - Giving Attendees a Competitive Edge!

Committee Members: James Hornung, Sr., Timothy Hahn, James Hornung, Jr.

Another great year in Buffalo!

According to the evaluations... Continuing education, recertification credits and strength in programming are important to you. We're listening to your comments and bringing in the speakers and topics you're looking for!

Brad Park from Rutgers University brought his IPM strategies and turfgrass selection for high traffic turf knowledge to Buffalo. Steve LeGros owner of LeGros, Inc. discussed his involvement in rebuilding America's front lawn with the renovation of the National Mall.

Thanks to the continued generosity of our sponsors and dedication of the Western Regional Conference Committee, NYSTA was able to provide another solid program.
